

Clothes for Children

King Street Church Global Partners

Several of our King Street Church women have the God-given ability to hand-craft garments that will be sent to needy families all over the world. Funds to this project will be used to buy fabric and other supplies in meeting this practical but very important need.

Project – Goal $1,500

